In 2020, Australia has the privilege of welcoming the world for two ICC T20 World Cups.

For the first time, the ICC Women’s and Men’s T20 World Cups will be held as standalone events in the same country and in the same year.

The T20 World Cup is the International Cricket Council’s pinnacle global event in the fastest growing and most accessible format of the game. It is the means by which all 105 Member Nations can compete to be world champions. The 10 top women’s and 16 best men’s teams will play a total of 68 matches across both tournaments in eight host cities around the country.

Australia is renowned for hosting incredible major events. Its world class venues and event cities, filled with passionate and knowledgeable fans will provide an awesome stage for the best players in the world to battle it out.

T20 World Cup Hospitality has created a range of vibrant and contemporary experiences to match the action on the field, so that you and your guests can enjoy this spectacular celebration in style!

The information here and on the official website – T20WorldCupHospitality.com – will help you design your unique T20 World Cup experience.

Should you have any enquiries, our dedicated team will be delighted to assist.

I look forward to seeing you in 2020!
